THE RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- The wrecked cars near Chatham on the Virginia Midland rais near Chatham of the Virginia Airdiand road took fire yesterday from lime, and a special car was sent to Danville for a fire-engine to protect the trestle. The engine was not needed, however, and was returned. The cars were allowed to burn so as to clear the may fire the new treatle, which will be the way for the new trestle, which will be ready by Monday, Col. Andrews having a large force of men at work rebuilding it. Some freight was saved, but much of it perished in the flames. The loss is variousgestimated at from twenty to fifty thousand dollars. There is doubt as to whether the trestle was broken before the train got on it. It is believed the truck of one of the cars jumped the track and threw the other cars of the repaired, and also the settle-excess of the cars of the repaired, and also the settle-excess of the repaired and three repaired are repaired. lection of his engine going down behind, and a brakeman on the last car saw every car as it left the track and plunged into the abyss below. He jumped just before his car went over. The engine is not badly damaged, but the cars were crushed.

WANTED TO TAKE LAUDANUM .- An Alexandria county man, named Dwyer, came to this city this morning much disturbed in mind and stated that having completed some work for a man named Gray, living near Arlington, he had been wronged in a settlement, and to make matters worse his wife and daughter had upbraided him for not knowing better. He went to the drug store of Mr. W. D. Hudson and asked for two ounces of laudanum, with which to put an end to his troubles, but was refused. to this city this morning much disturbed in two ounces of laudanum, with which to put an end to his troubles, but was refused the drug, and an acquaintance of his happening to come into the store at the time

MISCEGENATION.-Jerry Barber, one of the blackest men ever arrai ned in a court justice, was yesterday charged by Officer Parker, of East Washington, with vagrancy. The prisoner stood in the dock wearing clothing that scarcely covered his body. The officer stated that Barber came there from Orange Court House, about four years age with his white wife, a good looking woman about 25 years old, and has for some months been occupying a room in an old tenement house. The prisoner's wife was confined in August of last year, since which time the child has died and she has

THE OPERA HOUSE .- "The Shadow Detective" will be presented at the Opera House next Monday evening by Dan Kelly and an excellent company. The play is of intense interest, all the situations being naturally effective and the plot reasonable and coherent throughout. The Morning Journal says: "The drama was excellently acted throughout. The company interpreted their parts with great ability and the numerous situations of thrilling and amusing interest were awarded with hearty applause.'

POLICE REPORT .- Last night was rainy and cold with one prisoner and three lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Isaac Epps, colored, arrested by officer Pat. Hayes, for being drunk on the street, was fined $1. Sam. Lamb, arrested by officer Grady, charged with assaulting members of his amily, was released on his personal bond to keep the peace for one year and to keep away from his mother's house.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.-The Secretary War transmitted to the House yesterday the report of the board of engineers appoint ed to report upon the project of reconstructing the old Aqueduct bridge over the Potc-mac at Georgetown. The chief enginner gives in detail the plan of reconstructing the bridge, which includes a draw. The plan is concurred in by the Chief of Engineers, and is recommended to the Secretary of War for approval ; as is also the recommendation the board that the question of a draw be referred at once to Congress for such action as may be deemed advisable.

The Flour markets are quiet and without new features; transactions are still confined to the jobbing trade, with sales well distributed as to grade. Wheat is without material change, while futures, fair and common lots are sluggish, and there is little or no speculative spirit shown by buyers; all strictly prime samples are readily sold. Corn is firm. Rye and Oats are strong and active.
